Trio con Brio Copenhagen

Sunday October 11, 2020 5:00 P.M.

"Glowing reports hold true. This Trio clearly occupies a lofty perch in today's musical scene." — Washington Post

Acknowledged as one of the finest piano trios in the world, Danish Trio con Brio Copenhagen quickly earned a reputation for their fresh and contemporary approach. Today they are regularly heard at the world's leading venues and concert series, among them Carnegie Hall, Lincoln Center, Wigmore Hall, Berlin Pierre Boulez-Saal, the Concertgebouw and many more.

Nikolay Khozyainov, Piano

Sunday January 24, 2021 5:00 P.M.

"The music world is taking note of Nikolay Khozyainov's stunning virtuosic and prodigious technique." — The New York Times

Originally from the far East of Russia, Khozyainov is a pianist of precocious and prodigious talent. His musicality and formidable technique have thrilled audiences around the world since his debut at the Moscow Conservatory at age seven. The youngest finalist of the International Chopin XVI Piano Competition in 2010, his featured recitals and concerto engagements include performances at some of the world's foremost stages.

Pacifica Quartet

Sunday February 21, 2021 5:00 P.M.

"...nothing short of phenomenal..." — The Telegraph

Recognized for its virtuosity, exuberant performance style, and often-daring repertory choices, the Pacifica Quartet has achieved international recognition as one of the finest chamber ensembles performing today. Named quartet-in-residence at Indiana University's Jacobs School of Music in March 2012, the Pacifica was previously the quartet-in-residence at the Metropolitan Museum of Art and received a Grammy Award for Best Chamber Music Performance.

Mayuko Kamio, Violin Noreen Polera, Piano

Sunday March 14, 2021 5:00 P.M.

"An exciting young musician....a radiant talent." — The New York Times

Japanese violinist Mayuko Kamio, widely praised for her luxurious silken tone, expressive phrasing and virtuoso technique, was the youngest winner of the Menuhin International Violin Competition and the gold medalist of the 2007 International Tchaikovsky Competition. Winner of the accompanying prize at the VIII International Tchaikovsky Competition, pianist Noreen Polera ranks among the most highly regarded and diverse chamber artists performing today.

Miró Quartet

Sunday April 11, 2021 5:00 P.M.

Presented in partnership with the Bay Area Music Consortium

"Throughout, the Miró Quartet played with explosive vigor and technical finesse." — The New York Times

The Miró Quartet is one of America's most celebrated string quartets, having performed throughout the world on the most prestigious concert stages. Based in Austin, TX, the Miró has been awarded first prize at several competitions including the Banff International String Quartet Competition and Naumburg Chamber Music Competition; and in 2005, became the first ensemble ever to be awarded an Avery Fisher Career Grant.

Sponsorship & Outreach

The Mill Valley Chamber Music Society is run entirely by volunteers who love chamber music and believe in making it locally available and accessible to everyone. Please join our Sponsorship Program to help us bring wonderful concerts with outstanding artists to Mill Valley! Visit our website or speak to any board member about becoming a sponsor.

Every season we are able to offer music workshops and performances in Marin County schools through our Outreach Program. This program is an important part of our mission, and students and teachers find the experience extremely educational and rewarding.
